The COVID-19 pandemic has drastically transformed the insurance world. Insurance players are facing tectonic changes and must be agile to adapt to these rapid developments. They must pivot to digital innovation while simplifying processes, optimizing and securing data, and delivering unique customer experiences.

Insurtech Summit 2021 is a 3-day virtual conference that aims to gather the players in the life and non-life insurance sector and provide the latest insurtech insights and a practical playbook on how to survive and thrive in the insurance space during these unprecedented times.

The Summit is organized by the Microinsurance Intermediaries and Practitioners Association of the Philippines (MIPAP) and Impact Advisory Services (IAS) with support from various insurance associations.

Agenda

In-person selling and servicing have been the traditional means for insurance providers and intermediaries to do business. Due to mobility restrictions and health risks posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the insurance industry is now being challenged to build trust, sustain customer-centricity and pivot to digital innovation.

The pandemic has been a defining moment for all of us and is pushing digital transformation in the insurance sector to a whole new level.

Insurtech Summit 2021: Winning the Digital Wave is a virtual conference by the Microinsurance Intermediaries & Practitioners Association of the Philippines (MIPAP) and the Impact Advisory Services (IAS), along with other supporters, that aims to provide the insurance sector a playbook on how to survive and thrive in these unprecedented times.
